Highlight

Brandon SDA Women's Ministry did an amazing job with the Christmas Program! A special thanks to all the hard work of Roxan Bennett and Deloris Wyatte for such a touching evening.

Deloris Wyatte not only wrote the play, The Withered Rose, put on by the wonderful cast, but also directed it as well!

If you were unable to attend, it was a touching Christmas story about a 21 year old young lady played by Gwen Fronda who believed that she didn't need to give her heart to Christ until she was much older. Nothing her parents did to encourage her relationship with God had any effect on her other than irritate her. It wasn't until her very wealthy, favorite Aunt Phoebe came for a visit to give her a gift that would change her idea of God once and for all. She anticipated receiving an extravagant gift like she had received in years past. But to her surprise, she receive an old withered rose. Her Aunt Phoebe loving explained that this withered rose was like her relationship with God, that she was not giving God the very best of herself, in fact she was giving Him the very worst. This example really hit this young lady and she decided to give God her very best from now on!

This event raised money for Community Service, Metropolitan Ministries and those in need.
